

Hottmouth Granny Reloaded and Learie Joseph square off

Published:

Thursday, September 13, 2012

For 2012 their shows have been acclaimed as among the best produced and the best attended. So, when promoter Randy Glasgow decided to present Nikki Crosby and Learie Joseph on the same stage, it can only be defined as a stroke of genius.

Both Learie and Nikki are considered amongst the best comedians in the Caribbean so one can expect non stop laughter when Randy Glasgow Productions (RGP) premieres Hottmouth Granny Reloaded and The King of Clowns Learie Joseph on Thursday night, at Queen's Hall, St Ann's.

This comedy event is a pre-Republic Day production that features Queen of comedy theatre Nikki Crosby, Penelope Spencer, Debra Boucaud Mason, Kevon Brooks and the King of Clowns Learie Joseph. It will run until Saturday, at 8.30 pm each evening. Admission is just $100 for general admission, and $150 for VIP seating.

Tickets are available at Queen's Hall Box Office (623-1284); Crosby's, WMR, St James; Cleve's, Frederick Street; Cache, West Mall and corner Prince and Henry Streets, Port-of-Spain; X Foods Supermarket, Grand Bazaar and Chaguanas; and, Laxmi Jewellers, High Street San Fernando.

Entertainment