

More alternative comedy demanded

Published:

Thursday, April 7, 2011

After eight shows to date the 2011 Alternative Comedy Festival continues to attract sold out audiences and draw demands for more runs nationwide. Even though the North American acts have already left our shores the local comedians continue to please audiences at the repeat shows. And just when Randy Glasgow Productions thought last weekend's show at the Queen's Park Savannah was a wrap and it was time to move on, the people of Central called for more. Therefore on Saturday, Randy Glasgow Productions will present one more run of the Alternative Comedy Festival at the Rienzi Complex, Couva, from 8 pm.

More than 35 top local comedians and actors along with regional artistes will perform. There is a special offer of two people entering on one ticket as well as patrons are allowed to bring their coolers. Among the artistes taking the stage on the night are: Learie Joseph, Errol Fabien, Wendell Etienne, Dr Choon Kee Ting, Cyclops, Damion Melville, George Gonzales, Knuts Landing, Saint and Dr Pee Wee. Randy Glasgow Productions promises that patrons will be falling off their chairs laughing all through the night.

For more info call 628-9158.

Entertainment